

A Paddlers Guide to Killarney and the French River

The latest addition to Kevin Callans guidebook series provides the 20 best canoeing, kayaking, and hiking trips in Ontarios picturesque Killarney/French River region, a favorite wilderness getaway spot in central Ontario. At least three of the routes in this book are documented here for the first time. Situated at the north end of Georgian Bay, Killarney Provincial Park is a paddlers paradise of rugged, windswept islands and turquoise lakes beneath breathtaking white quartzite mountains. The nearby French River is a historic waterway once used by explorers Samuel de Champlain, Alexander Mackenzie, and David Thompson. Paddlers of all experience will find weeklong trips on Killarneys tranquil interior lakes and along the Georgian Bay shoreline, and weekend jaunts down remote stretches of the French River. The book includes detailed maps, suggestions for side trips, and color photographs, making this the ideal reference for planning a dream trip by canoe or kayak. Callans fascinating notes and his trademark tales of adventure and misadventure add to the reading pleasure.
