

Judging Time (April Woo Suspense Novels)

With New York City policewoman April Woo, Leslie Glass is rapidly creating an intensely loyal readership for her superb novels of criminal investigation and psychological suspense. Newly promoted to sergeant after several years bucking the NYPD's male-dominated system, Woo is first on the scene when the wife of a former football star is stabbed to death in Times Square, along with a male companion. Public frenzy immediately seizes on the husband as the killer, and Woo's former partner, homicide detective Mike Sanchez, is ready to go after him full throttle. But even with the heat coming down from City Hall, Woo doesn't like shortcuts—especially when the real killer may still be at large.

*Fresh, exciting psychological suspense from a hot new author. *As an Asian-American policewoman, April Woo is unique in current crime fiction. *Leslie Glass has a strong and building track record. *Terrific reviews and quotes from well-known authors for her previous books.

* Leslie Glass's Loving Time was chosen by Mostly Murder as one of the Years Best novels in 1996.
