

US & British Virgin Islands Travel Guide: The Top 10 Highlights on US & British Virgin Islands (Globetrotter Guide Books)

Discover the Fascinating Pirates Legends in an idyllic Corner of the World: the Virgin Islands Whether you are planning a perfect vacation by the beach or you're in the mood for an adventure, the Virgin Islands is the place to be. Boasting gorgeous beaches, unique sights, amazing marine ecosystems and friendly locals, all sprinkled with intriguing pirate legends and delicious rum, the Virgin Islands are the epitome of a perfect vacation. Divided into two territories: the American and the British one, this small archipelago, at the border between the Caribbean sea and the Atlantic Ocean, has a plethora of touristic attraction and incredible places that should not be missed. With dozens of small islands, many of which are not even inhabited, it is difficult to pick just a handful. That is why you need this easy to read book in order to find out what are the places you should definitely not miss. Inside the US & British Virgin Islands Travel Guide: The Virgin Islands National Park Charlotte Amalie Coral World Ocean park Magens Bay Buck Island National Monument Road Town Mount Sage National Park Anegada Island Norman Island The Baths National Park Did you know the Virgin Islands are renowned not only for their dazzling white sand beaches but also for their prime snorkeling and diving spots? The Buck Island National Monument boasts one of the largest barrier coral reefs in the world, at the experience of swimming around these remarkable creatures is truly unforgettable. Even the largest cities in this archipelago still have a small town charm, and the best places to indulge in some retail therapy is the US Virgin Islands capital city Charlotte Amalie. On the other hand, the rustic Road Town, the British Virgin Islands capital, has a lot more beauty and whimsy. If all this is still not enough, you should know that some of the unhabitated islands here are surrounded by amazing stories with pirates and great treasures hidden on the beautiful secluded beaches. So don't wait any longer? Start planning your trip now and get the US & British Virgin Islands Travel Guide right away!
