

EARTH ANGELS

Reginald B. Pendleton is a brilliant, embittered, broken physicist cast aside by the scientific community. He gives up all hope for happiness and uses his ingenious skills to plot the end of the world. Enter Kittay and Olivette, two young cherubs who plead with heaven to let them try to save the doomed planet that they love. Against all odds they find themselves in an abandoned building with only one resident, Reginald B. Pendleton. Unaware of his intentions they transform his life and everyone they touch.
