

#OurTown (Cairo Cafe Book 1)

I got wrapped up in the hilarious and quirky characters, forgetting that under all the wonderful campiness of the setting and character interactions there's a mystery here...I found this to be unique and charming overall, with lovable characters and witty dialog. Im hooked, and eagerly awaiting the next installments! Still can't believe how CAIRO #0 ended? We won't spoil it for new readers who should go pick up our Ground Zero issue (#0) that introduces gay out of water Big City ex-Mayor Abraham Lincoln, closet case legal eagle Cortland Tutwiler, and Goth Girl waitress Raven Niles. So before you finish the rest of this book blurb, PICK UP CAIRO CAFE #0 & read it. NOW! Since it is a comic book, it shouldn't take you that long to OHHH & AHHH at the gorgeous 3D art and the poetic text by yours truly. Don't worry, we can wait... ... Okay, done? After you pick your jaw off the floor from that shock cliffhanger, this issue (#1) introduces more quirky residents of Egypt, Oregon and even includes the new town guide with the cute 80s-inspired title Walk Like Us...A Walking Tour of Egypt, Oregon. The inspiring introduction by Mayor Dr. Cleopatra King-Tutwiler is worth the ticket price alone. In light of the numerous murders that have plagued the town, Egypt needs to be reminded how lucky it is to be a god-fearing community. What god remains to be seen.
