

Blue is the Colour of Heaven: A Journey Through Afghanistan

This is the story of an adventure that began in the mind of an eight-year-old boy obsessed with looking for the Afghan and ended with a dash to safety across more than 700 kilometres of mountain and desert. Avoiding landmines and bullets, the author spent months travelling through Iraq and Iran, negotiating a way into Afghanistan. Joining forces with the war-weary Mujahedeen, he found unexpected allies and unforgettable friends.
