

El Decameron, 2 (Spanish Edition)

Con independencia de su valor como documento ilustrativo de la Italia de la época y como manifestación del amanecer del Renacimiento, EL DECAMERON es, antes que nada, una pieza maestra de la narrativa y uno de los grandes monumentos de la literatura universal. Dividida en dos tomos a causa de su extensión, esta versión castellana reproduce el texto íntegro de esta obra clásica, según la edición italiana fijada por Vittore Branca. La traducción de Esther Benítez está orientada por el deseo de ajustarla a la sensibilidad de nuestro tiempo y por el criterio de reflejar el mundo del siglo XIV con los mismos ojos con que lo vio GIOVANNI BOCCACCIO: el variado fresco de la vida medieval, cuyo trasfondo son la Peste Negra, el Cisma de Occidente, las rivalidades entre señores feudales, las Cruzadas, la naciente burguesía urbana: todo un exuberante tapiz donde se entretrejen sermones moralistas y costumbres desenfadadas, los ecos del amor cortes y el nuevo estilo de poetizar, el apólogo oriental sabiamente trasplantado a Occidente, la alegre sátira de costumbres y un hondo anticlericalismo. También en esta colección: Divina Comedia
