

Erica James: Three Great Novels: The Romantic Comedies: A Sense of Belonging/Act of Faith/the Holiday (v. 2)

A SENSE OF BELONGING Cholmford Hall Mews offers more than an exclusive location in which to live. Several very different people have arrived and are coming to terms with their futures. All the newcomers to Cholmford Hall Mews are searching for something - but will they find rather more than they bargained for...? ACT OF FAITH For Ali Anderson, Christmas is a poignant reminder of the tragedy that not so long ago tore her life apart and destroyed her once-happy marriage to Elliot. She agrees to spend Christmas with her friend Sarah. But as Sarahs husbands cranky behaviour escalates, Ali decides to play God with her friends incomprehensible marriage - with consequences she could never have imagined. THE HOLIDAY Izzy Jordan knows she ought to put the past behind her, and a summer holiday in Corfu looks to be just the chance she needs - theres even the possibility of a no-strings-attached holiday romance with the irresistible Theo. Then Theos oldest friend, Mark, turns up - a crime writer with a past more complex than Izzys - and helps her make a decision that ensures this is a holiday no one will forget.
