

Greek Fire

On the brink of uncovering a KGB spy ring in Corfu, an undercover MI6 officer is found dead, and his double-agent is missing. Only two miles across the sea lies Albania, where a secretive and brutally repressive regime guards its independence - and strategically invaluable naval bases - against the Russians and NATO alike. Landing on the unfamiliar island, Lucas Grant enlists the help of the local field agent - the dead man's lover - and uncovers a sinister, complex plot that threatens all of Europe's security.
