

Hang Your Hat on a Star

This is the story of a young man, from his birth to his passing on at the age of 51. It points out all the good things, his travels with his military father and mother. He then had a kidney transplant and after a few years he passed on. This book goes into detail as to why he needed a kidney removal, how his other kidney got poisoned and the process of living on dialysis and then a kidney transplant. In the meanwhile he tried to live his life.
