

Island Jewel

Second novel in the AMERICAN NOMAD series. Jewel and his family board the 1950s luxury liner Lurline for the continuation of their journey to Territorial Hawaii and island living; first at Hickam Air Force Base on the banks of Pearl Harbor, then into the suburb of Pearl City before moving to the lush sugar cane fields of Aiea Heights. Jewel learns to surf Waianae and Barbers Point, roams the bustling streets of Waikiki and struggles when his beloved brother moves to a boarding school on another island.
