

James Herriots Favorite Dog Stories

This classic bestseller from Americas most beloved storyteller, Veterinarian James Herriot, contains fifty unforgettable, heartwarming tales about dogs great and small. We read heartwarming stories of James Herriots own dogs as well as all the wonderful people and animals we have already met and grown to love in his four bestselling story collections. This collection features the best of Herriots dog stories, including three stories that were not previously published, and original, special commentary from Herriot on each story. With an introduction and notes from James Herriot himself, this tribute to mans best friend will move you to laughter and tears. This is a book that will be treasured for years to come.
