

Avidit (English and French Edition)

Une jeune fille est retrouvée noyée dans un lac autrichien, ficelée dans une bache. Du travail en perspective pour les gendarmes. L'un d'eux fréquentait la victime. Mais il a aussi la particularité de séduire les femmes mures vivant seules dans l'espoir de se voir léguer tous leurs biens. Avec un cynisme frisant la misanthropie et une virtuosité verbale savamment calculée, Elfriede Jelinek nous livre à travers ce roman un nouveau témoignage de ce rapport amour-haine qu'elle entretient avec l'Autriche, son pays de cannibales. Un roman fort, d'un foisonnement destabilisant. Raphaëlle Rerolle, Le Monde Une écriture tissée de références culturelles, de crudité verbale, de ruptures, de fulgurances littéraires et d'un humour ravageur ne de la cohabitation de tous ces registres. Michele Gazier, Telerama. Traduit de l'allemand par Claire de Oliveira.
