

Little Miss Evil (Nick Hoffman Mysteries Book 4)

College Can Be Crazy--For the Professors! Rage erupts when an academic superstar arrives at the State University of Michigan with all the force of Dorothys house landing on the Wicked Witch. Theres nothing but turmoil now in SUMs troubled English Department, and professor Nick Hoffman once again finds himself embroiled in scandal and murder. Thats not remotely the life this hard-working bibliographer expected at his bucolic Midwestern campus, but with the love of his partner, he can rise above it all. Keep his career going. And stay alive. Or so he hopes.... The perfect book to take away for a weekend in the country...a genuinely funny modern comedy of manners. --The Washington Post The Borgias would not be bored at the State University of Michigan, that snake pit of academic politics. --The New York Times Book Review Do yourself a favor. Curl up with a box of assorted chocolates and Little Miss Evil. Indulge! --TIKKUN A joy throughout, thanks to heroes with brains, heart, and nerves to spare. --Kirkus Reviews Full of wisecracks, wit and pithy observations...I love this series! --Murder Ink Lev Raphaels writing is rich and satisfying, with subtle, densely textured characterizations and witty takes on life in general and the academic world in particular. --I Love a Mystery
