

The Masters Indwelling

The apostle here speaks of two stages of the Christian life, two types of Christians: I could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. They were Christians, in Christ, but instead of being spiritual Christians, they were carnal. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat, for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet are ye able, for ye are yet carnal. Here is that word a second time. For whereasthis is the proofthere is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? For while one saith, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollos, are ye not carnal? Four times the apostle uses that word carnal. In the wisdom which the Holy Ghost gives him, Paul feels:I can not write to these Corinthian Christians unless I know their state, and unless I tell them of it. If I give spiritual food to men who are carnal Christians, I am doing them more harm than good, for they are not fit to take it. I cannot feed them with meat, I must feed them with milk. And so he tells them at the very outset of the epistle what he sees to be their state. In the two previous chapters he had spoken about his ministry being by the Holy Spirit; now he begins to tell them what must be the state of a people in order to accept spiritual truth, and he says: I have not liberty to speak to you as I would, for you are carnal, and you cannot receive Spiritual truth. That suggests to us the solemn thought, that in the Church of Christ there are two classes of Christians.
