

Trick Question: A Hard-Boiled New Orleans Legal Thriller (Tubby Dubonnet #3) (The Tubby Dubonnet Series)

DUNBARS INVENTED A NEW GENRE: CALL IT CREOLE-FOODIE-NOIR. Trick Question is the THIRD mouth-watering mystery in Edgar- and Anthony-nominated author Tony Dunbars beloved TUBBY DUBONNET series. A real work of mystery art. -New Orleans Times-Picayune [Tubby Dubonnet] makes a charming guide to a side of New Orleans few see. -Booklist For the discerning reader who enjoys a knowing chuckle, a sazerac, a bit of pompano en papillote, and a running travelogue of New Orleans along with his murders Medical lab janitor Cletus Busters is caught red-handed in a restricted area with the frozen head of Dr. Whitney Valentine, one of the labs most prestigious researchers. Busters wont say much, except that hes innocent. But given his conspicuous record and past as a voodoo guru, all signs point to life in prison. Calling Tubby Dubonnet! With the trial less than a week away, Busters lawyer has made exactly two motions - heading to the bar for several rounds of Wild Turkey and begging Tubby for help. Meanwhile, Tubbys taken on a new client - a female boxer with an abusive boyfriend - and also has to referee the romantic entanglements of his ex-wife and three teenage daughters. But as Busters trial proceeds, and the jury savors the startling evidence (alongside Dunbars succulent descriptions of Crescent City cuisine), the danger mounts. Revealing the murderer could prove to be Tubbys biggest triumph or his last case ever. Warning: Do not attempt to read this book without a handy snack preferably a Hubigs pie or a pack of Zapps potato chips. Both would be better. Dunbars understated, syncopated delivery makes you wonder if there are enough honest men in New Orleans for a rubber of bridge -Kirkus Dunbar weaves together the many strands of his highly entertaining tale with much skill and wit. -Publishers Weekly
