

Hanalei Colony Resort A Special Place

Written by George Ksander, its all about this condominium resort hotels ohana nui, or extended family. And in the Hawaiian tradition, this extended family encompasses everyone connected to this very special place, from the staff and owners to the neighbors to the guestspast, present, and future. Responding to the desire of the community to capture and share the experiences that make the Hanalei Colony Resort so important to them, Ksander combines local legends, historical records, journalistic accounts, music, books, film, personal experiences, and his own lovely impressionistic vignettes to explore the question, why is this place so special? With a focus on talking story, Hanalei Colony Resort: A Special Place offers a unique narrative about a one-of-a-kind locationon the north shore of Kauaithat is not only spectacular in its natural geography, but also has a magical aura imbued by its history, culture, and people. Whether you are already under its spell or you would like to get an intimate, insiders look at the many aspects that make this place what it is, this book is sure to move you with the aloha spirit.
